LONDON, October 28.

A MONUMENT of exquisite Workmanship, design'd by Adams, and executed by Rysbrach, is now erected in the Parish Church of St. Michael Penkivil, Cornwall, to the mory of Admiral Boscawen, with the follow- Inscription:

Here lies the Right Honourable
EDWARD BOSCAWEN,
Admiral of the Blue, General of Marines,
Lord of the Admiralty, and one of his Majesty's most Hon. Privy Council.
His Birth, tho' noble,
His Titles, tho' illustrious,
ere but incidental Additions to his Greatness.
HISTORY
In more expressive and more indelible
Characters,
Will inform latest Posterity
With what ardent Zeal,
With what successful Valour,
He served his Country;
And taught her Enemies
To dread her naval Power.
In Command
He was equal to every Emergency,
Superior to every Difficulty;
his high Departments masterly and upright;
His Example formed, while
His Patronage rewarded,
MERIT:
th the highest Exertions of military Greatness
He united the gentlest Offices of Humanity;
His Concern for the Interest, and unwearied
Attention to the Health, of all under
His Command,
Softened the necessary Exactions of Duty,
And the Rigours of Discipline,
the Care of a Guardian, and the Tenderness
Of a Father.
Thus beloved and revered,
niable in private Life, as illustrious in public,
This gallant and profitable Servant of his Country,
When he was beginning to reap the Harvest
Of his Toils and Dangers,
In the full Meridian of Years and Glory,
After having been providentially preserved
Thro' every Peril incident to his Profession,
Died of a Fever,
On the 10th of January, in the Year 1761,
The 50th of his Age.
At Hachland's Park, in Surry,
A Seat he had just finished (at the Expence
Of the Enemies of his Country)
And (amidst the Groans and Tears
Of his beloved Cornishmen) was Here deposited.
His once happy Wife inscribes this Marble,
An unequal Testimony of his Worth,
And of her Affection.

m the Gentleman's Magazine, for Octob. 1763.

ON the 2d of this Month a most violent Storm began, which did great Damage to the Ship- in different Parts of the Coasts of this King- n, as well as in the River Thames, where two ward bound Indiamen, were driven from their orings, and the Lighters with their Guns on rd, sunk. This Storm was no less violent in and and Scotland than here, the fatal Effects of ich are more and more heard of every Day. e Packet boats for Ireland were reduced to the atest Distress in this Storm, and having neither nor Candle on board, the Passengers, in mber 100, and more, almost suffocated in the d, where they were forced to remain in as bad ituation as the Black Hole, till the Packet very ppily got to Haverford West, where the Hatches re opened, and the poor Creatures released, just many of them were ready to expire.

Letters from Ireland also give dreadful Accounts the Damages done by this Storm. At Thomas-Town the Bridge was carried away, together with the Post-Office and several Houses, and some Persons drowned. John's and Green's Bridges in Kilkenny; also Callen, Enniskague, Bennet's, Ballylynch, and Two-mile Bridges are all thrown down; and a small Rivulet, which runs through Gowran, rose 20 Feet. The falling of John's Bridge was attended with most affecting Circumstances, being crowded with People going to the Assistance of a Family whose House was surrounded with Water, and which was shortly after carried away. The Number of Persons lost on this melancholy Occasion, was upwards of 70. Seventeen Bridges in the County of Wicklow, have been carried away; and the Commons of Lyons have been laid Four Feet under Water.

On the 17th Instant, an extraordinary luminous Appearance was observed in Scotland, about 7 o'Clock in the Evening, which proceeded with great Velocity from N. to S. and with such Splendor, as to illuminate the whole Country, equally as at Mid-Day. The same Phænomenon was observ'd in France.

On the 21st, a curious Halo appeared round the Moon, it's Semidiameter from the lower Limb of the Planet, to the opposite Arch of the Phænomenon, was very near 21 Degrees and an Half. The Halo was exceeding bright, and lasted from Half past Ten, till within one Minute of Eleven.

A shovel mouth'd, or cow bellied Shark, peculiar to the Coast of Africa, was killed by some Fishermen on the Coast of Ireland. Its Length was Five Feet; it's Breadth Four. It had three Rows of Teeth, Paps under its Fins; and it's Maw could be seen distinctly into Three Feet deep, and big enough to hold a Man.

A Mountain call'd Kerkaece, in the County of Wicklow, burst with a prodigious Noise, and immediately a great Eruption of Water came forth, and ran with great Rapidity into an adjoining River, carrying all before it.

A Letter from Port-Mahon, affirms, that before the French quitted that Fort, they ruin'd the Works, and left the Whole in a miserable Condition.

The Lively from Chester for Dublin, positively said in several printed Letters to have been lost, with more than 100 Passengers, and a Cargo valued at 40,000 l. arrived in Dublin Harbour after suffering great Distress, and having several Persons wash'd overboard; 60 per Cent. Insurance was refus'd upon her.

Thus far the Gentleman's Magazine.

LONDON, October 29.

IT is asserted, that two great Powers, and very near Neighbours to Poland, entered into a Convention several Months ago, to Guarantee the Freedom of the next Election, and to advance two Armies of a competent Force, on their respective Frontiers, which are to remain at the Disposition of the Primate, in Case any other foreign Power shall attempt to make use of Force.

Part of the Wreck of a large Ship is cast on Shore near Wareham Harbour, near Berwick; a Surgeon's Chest and 16 Gun Carriages coming ashore, makes it thought to be a King's Ship: Only one Body, and that Naked, is yet found.

As the Business of Ship Building in our foreign Plantations is an Article of the highest Importance, and a very considerable Branch of Commerce, we hear great Interest will be made at the ensuing Sessions for a Repeal of that Part of the Clause in an Act of Parliament which strictly enjoins all Ships freighted from America to the Mediterranean, to an immediate return to England, by which the intentional Sale of such Ships abroad are very much retarded, and the Expence augmented.—Should this Effort take Place, as New-England built Ships are in much Esteem abroad, we shall soon see all our idle Carpenters plentifully provided for, without the Necessity of driving them to foreign Places for Employ.

The Settlers of Florida and Louisiana will have greatly the Advantage of their Predecessors, who went over upon the same Plan to the Northward; they will not have the dreadful Frosts of New-England and Nova-Scotia to encounter, there being no Winter so far to the Southward; all Manner of Necessaries will be brought to their Hands, and the Men of War and Transports will shelter and assist them till proper Houses are built for them.

It is rumoured that the King of Prussia will set up his Brother Prince Henry for a Candidate for King of Poland, having already secured 18 Voters.

Governor Johnstone of West-Florida, taking Affront at the North Briton of Sept. 17, went to the Lodgings of Mr. Brooks, and asked him if he was the Author of that Paper; but receiving no satisfactory Answer, the Governor struck him first with his Fist, and then repeated his Blow with a great Stick; and on Brooks's grappling with him, the Governor drew his Sword. Mr. Brooks has since served him with a Judge's Warrant, and employed Mr. Beardmore to prosecute him in the Court of Common Pleas for the Assault.

Nov. 2. We hear that besides indicting Governor J--st--ne in the Court of King's Bench, in Behalf of the King for an Assault, that Mr. B---- has commenced an Action against that Gentleman and laid his Damages at 1000 l.

There are now such immense Quantities of Corn in the different Ports of Spain, France and Portugal, which have been exported from England, that Shipmasters are obliged to make great Interest in having their Ships unloaded; and many of them are obliged to wait so long, that the Expences of the Voyage consumes the Profit: It is said several Thousand Bushels are now shipping off for the Havannah, and other Spanish and French Islands in the West-Indies.

Oct. 31. A Captain in the West-India Trade has lately discovered a very easy and singular Method of working a Ship's Pumps at Sea, by Means of a simple mechanical Engine, which the least Breeze of Wind puts in Motion.

We can with pleasure observe, that by an Account just published at the End of a printed Sermon, lately preached by the celebrated Dr. Delany before Sir Robert Ladbroke, President, and the Trustees of the several Charity Schools belonging to this City and Suburbs, it appears that 3523 Boys are at this Time cloathed and educated, and some of them qualified for Sea Service; and 1205 Girls are also cloathed and educated, and many of them wholly maintained, by the voluntary Contributions of the Public, and the generous Legacies of well disposed Benefactors.

Nov. 11. Several Riots have already been raised in different Parts of Holland, on Account of some Efforts to introduce a new military Establishment in the Militia, which has occasioned many Lives to be lost.

About a Fortnight since a Lad found a Parcel of Papers in one of the Streets in this City, and being ignorant of their Contents, carried them to a Stock-broker, near the Royal Exchange, who not being at home, his Wife purchased them for 11. 6s. On Examination they proved to be Dutch Bank-Bills, and, we hear, that on Monday Se'nnight last they were sold, with a proper Salvo to any future Claimant, for 15,000 l.

Extract of a Letter from Quebec, Sept. 28.

"The late Revolt of Troops quartered here, does both the distressed Soldiers and the Governor great Honour. The Soldiers dismissed all their Officers, even to the Serjeants and Corporals, not desiring them to run any Risk in their distressed Cause, and sent them to assist the Governor in his critical Situation. They chose one Walker, a Grenadier in the 47th Regiment, for their Commander, and declared, that they could live with the usual Allowance of Provisions without their Pay, but could not live with their Pay without their Provisions; that they had no Intention to distress or plunder any of the Inhabitants, but that they were determined to march by Montreal to New-York, and demand a Redress of their Grievances from Gen. A----st, who, they looked on as the Person that had injured them, by stopping their Provisions. This a little alarmed our Governor, Gen. Murray, who ordered the Guard on Duty to be founded, and he found them all of one Opinion, but that they they would not desert their Post while on Duty. On this, the Governor entered into a Treaty with the injured Soldiers, and brought them to a Sense of their Duty without any Bloodshed."

BOSTON, January 2.

Capt. Scott, in a Brig, is cast away on the Back of Long-Island, the Vessel stove to Pieces, and all the Crew perished.

NEW-YORK, January 19.

On Sunday Night last, the City was alarmed by the ringing of the Bells, and the Cry of Fire, but it prov'd to be a Riot of a Party of Soldiers, to rescue a Prisoner for Debt, from the New Goal in this City—the following particular Account of which we have inserted at the earnest request of some of the Prisoners. In this Riot a few Persons were wounded or hurt, and one Serjeant was killed.

On Sunday Night last, about half after Nine, a Gang of riotous Soldiers, armed with Guns and Axes, entered the Goal of this City. The Front Door being open, they were stopped by that which separates the Keeper's Lodgings from the Parts designed for Confinement, where they first discovered themselves, by shouting and huzzaing, Major Rogers. They demanded of Mr. Mills the Keys of the Goal, and on his Refusal grew very furious. He struggled a long Time with them, without being heard by any Body above Stairs, and in the Darkness and Confusion received a slight Cut in the Head, and a violent Bruise in the Shoulder; tho' it does not appear that they design'd him any personal Hurt. The Noise at last being heard, one of the Prisoners went to the Grate, and heard the Goaler calling to the Turnkey, and saying, that Soldiers came to rescue Major Rogers, he return'd to the Room where he had before been sitting with the Major and other Prisoners, and related what he had heard. The Major appeared very uneasy, and behaved with great Decency—I am afraid, said he, they will ruin me. He was desired to interpose, to pacify the Soldiers and prevent Mischief, but some Body having shut the Door that covers the Grate, and the Rioters finding themselves deprived of the Light of the Lamps, they grew more outrageous, and fired thro' the Grate, the Ball grazed the Major's Eye Brow, and wounded him. He withdrew to the Room he was in before, and said, they will undo me, they will certainly undo me.

The Soldiers soon forced all the Doors, and demanded the Major, who, with other Gentlemen, stood at the Door of the Room where they had passed the Evening.—He told them he was the Major, and ask'd what they wanted of him. One of them took him by the Collar, and said, Come, Sir, you are my Prisoner. The Major replied, Indeed I am afraid, Gentlemen, you will ruin me. He was immediately carried away.—[N. B. There was no Stranger in the Goal, which had been secured and lock'd up more early than usual, ever since the Major's Confinement.] Soon after, a great Number of Soldiers, chiefly arm'd with Guns, enter'd the Hall in the most riotous Manner, demanding the Major, and breaking all the Locks from the Doors, from the Cupola down to the Dungeons, not excepting those where Criminals for the most atrocious Offences were confin'd. They told the Debtors, they were come to pay off their Debts; that they were their Prisoners, but that they would immediately set them at large: They presented their Guns to the Breasts of all the Prisoners, to force them to leave the Goal. But tho' many of the Debtors are confined for large Sums, yet, to their Honour, one only took the Opportunity—and that one confined for not above £. 80 Currency. The Prisoners from before 10 till about 12 were not only at full Liberty to go off, but many of them were driven by Force out of the Goal. Some of them return'd immediately, and others the next Morning. They persuaded the Rioters, at length to retire, since all that had a mind to it had sufficient Time to escape. The Soldiers all went away, but some of them being in Liquor, and exulting in their Exploit, return'd again, and delay'd till the City Militia came up, headed by their Officers, who acted with great Firmness. The Goal was secured by a proper Guard, and Quiet was soon restored. Some petty Offenders were retaken, and of 35 Prisoners 11 only were missing, 6 of whom return'd before Noon, and but 4 have made use of the Opportunity to get off: An Instance this, of the too great Distrustfulness of Creditors, and a Proof that a reasonable Agreement might be preferable to a Confinement, which by utterly ruining the unhappy Debtor, seldom answers the Expectation of a doubting or merciless Creditor.

On Thursday the 5th Inst. three Soldiers insisting on the Ferrymens going over thro' the Ice with them, at New Brunswick, in breaking the Ice the Skiff got fast, and endeavouring to get loose, one of them fell thro', and was directly carried under the Ice, and lost. The other got ashore with some Difficulty.

January 26. We have received no particular Account since our last of the Riot mentioned in our Gazette last Monday, to have happened at the New Goal.—There is an Account published, said to be at the Request of some of the Prisoners, but it is too full of Inconsistencies to be introduced into this Paper. Upon the Whole, it appears that Major Rogers had frequent Interviews with a Number of those Soldiers, with whom, no doubt, he had laid his Plan.—That the better to execute it, he had fingled a Set of about 15 or 20, who were to do the Job at a certain Hour, keeping in Reserve at a Distance upwards of an Hundred others to second the Riot; but, kept in Ignorance of the Time of the Major's Release, that a general Alarm of the Town might prevent a Pursuit. This had its Effect;—For, in Half an Hour's Time, Rogers, was at the Front Door, and by Report, gave One, Two, or Three Indian Yells, and afterwards march'd off with himself.—At this very Instant, Notice was given to the Reserve, by those who actually released the Major, that they should assist; when they directly furiously bolted in, beat and abused the Prisoners, opened almost every Door in the Goal in order to find Rogers, and forced every Prisoner out of it at the Point of their Bayonets;—The greatest Part of whom returned the next Morning;—But the Major, (agreeable to Logick) major'd us all; for, during the Uproar, he was pushing off with a pick'd-up Horse—and, Indian like, went the Lord knows where. TWO HUNDRED Pounds, however, is offered for apprehending him.—To finish the Account of this Affray, we should be glad to know, who would be so desirous of having their Heads broke, and Shoulders confoundedly bruised, by a Stroke directly levell'd at them, and afterwards have it said, no personal Hurt was designed them;—(A Stroke in Rhetoric, this so crooked, that we are apt to believe most of our Readers rather chuse to read of, than to experience). With Regard to Mr. Rogers saying, Gentlemen you will certainly ruin me, is altogether good; for as he had Money about him,—to put the better Face on the Matter, it was an Indian Policy to cry out dread of Ruin. And, touching his Expressions of being undone;—take a Bear and chain him,—let one of the Rioters, or any other Person break it, and, if the Beast could speak, (Fable like) he would bellow out,—That Fellow has undone me:—And that was all Rogers wanted, viz. To be undone.——

Thursday last Messrs. Joseph and Richardson Cornell, of this City, Shop keepers, absconded, having first taken up Goods, from different Merchants of this Place, to the Amount of £. 7000, and converted the greatest part of them into ready Cash: They went to Cow Neck on Long-Island, and there shut themselves up in a Room, in the House of Mr. Henry Sands, of that Place, and as some of the Creditors were endeavouring to get in upon them, last Friday Morning, they fired two Shot, the last of which killed Mr. Timothy Mc Carthy of this Place, on the Spot; and the same Day they escaped; and 'twas supposed were conveyed on board a Schooner in the Sound. The Coroner's Inquest being summoned, brought in their Verdict, (it is said Wilful Murder.) Mr. Mc. Carthy's Body was brought to Town Saturday Night, and decently interred Yesterday Evening.

Three-and-Twenty Sail of Trading Vessels have quitted this Port since our last, Nine on one Day, and Fourteen on another.

PHILIP ALEXANDER.

Baltimore County, January 20 1764.

THIRTEEN DOLLARS REWARD.

LAST Night the House of the Subscriber was Broke open by a certain John Dent, who lived near the Premises; he pretends to be a Carpenter, a slim built Fellow, with black Hair tied behind, a remarkable Scar on his right Cheek, which he says he got by a Stroke from a Cutlass, born in Charles County, about 28 or 30 Years old, of a whitish Look, 5 Feet 6 or 8 Inches high, and an uncommon Lyar; a very impudent Fellow to some People, and to others very complaisant and obliging; he may be taken by a Boy of Fifteen Years old, if resolute. His Apparel is an old blue Coat, white Cloth Breeches, a spotted Flannel Waistcoat, blue Worsted Stockings, and a ripped Linen Shirt. He stole 2 Coats, 2 Waistcoats, a Pair of Pumps, and a Hat. It is probable he will change his Cloaths. If he should put on Cloaths which he stole, they are too big for him. He likewise stole a very genteel Saddle, with a Hog-skin Seat, and a neat English blue fring'd Housing, and a Pair of old fashion'd Saddle Bags. He also stole out of the Subscriber's Stable, a whitish Grey Mare 8 Years old, about 15 or 16 Hands high, a natural Pacer, very straight hamm'd, her Mane hangs on the right Side, is shod before, her Brand (if any) unknown. He likewise took a Half Bridle, with very long Reins.

Whoever takes up and secures the said John Dent, so that he may be brought to Justice, and the Owner may get his Mare, Saddle and Bridle, shall be paid the above Reward, by

EDWARD DORSEY.

BOSTON, January 2.

Capt. Scott, in a Brig, is cast away on the Back of Long-Island, the Vessel stove to Pieces, and all the Crew perished.

NEW-YORK, January 19.

On Sunday Night last, the City was alarmed by the ringing of the Bells, and the Cry of Fire, but it prov'd to be a Riot of a Party of Soldiers, to rescue a Prisoner for Debt, from the New Goal in this City—the following particular Account of which we have inserted at the earnest request of some of the Prisoners. In this Riot a few Persons were wounded or hurt, and one Serjeant was killed.

On Sunday Night last, about half after Nine, a Gang of riotous Soldiers, armed with Guns and Axes, entered the Goal of this City. The Front Door being open, they were stopped by that which separates the Keeper's Lodgings from the Parts designed for Confinement, where they first discovered themselves by shouting and huzzaing, Major Rogers. They demanded of Mr. Mills the Keys of the Goal, and on his Refusal grew very furious. He struggled a long Time with them, without being heard by any Body above Stairs, and in the Darkness and Confusion received a slight Cut in the Head, and a violent Bruise in the Shoulder; tho' it does not appear that they design'd him any personal Hurt. The Noise at last being heard, one of the Prisoners went to the Grate, and heard the Goaler calling to the Turnkey, and saying, that Soldiers came to rescue Major Rogers, he return'd to the Room where he had before been sitting with the Major and other Prisoners, and related what he had heard. The Major appeared very uneasy, and behaved with great Decency—I am afraid, said he, they will ruin me. He was desired to interpose, to pacify the Soldiers and prevent Mischief, but some Body having shut the Door that covers the Grate, and the Rioters finding themselves deprived of the Light of the Lamps, they grew more outrageous, and fired thro' the Grate, the Ball grazed the Major's Eye Brow, and wounded him. He withdrew to the Room he was in before, and said, they will undo me, they will certainly undo me.

The Soldiers soon forced all the Doors, and demanded the Major, who, with other Gentlemen, stood at the Door of the Room where they had passed the Evening.—He told them he was the Major, and ask'd what they wanted of him? One of them took him by the Collar, and said, Come, Sir, you are my Prisoner. The Major replied, Indeed I am afraid, Gentlemen, you will ruin me. He was immediately carried away.—[N. B. There was no Stranger in the Goal, which had been secured and lock'd up more early than usual, ever since the Major's Confinement.] Soon after, a great Number of Soldiers, chiefly arm'd with Guns, enter'd the Hall in the most riotous Manner, demanding the Major, and breaking all the Locks from the Doors, from the Cupola down to the Dungeons, not excepting those where Criminals for the most atrocious Offences were confin'd. They told the Debtors, they were come to pay off their Debts; that they were their Prisoners, but that they would immediately let them at large: They presented their Guns to the Breasts of all the Prisoners, to force them to leave the Goal. But tho' many of the Debtors are confined for large Sums, yet, to their Honour, one only took the Opportunity—and that one confined for not above £50 Currency. The Prisoners from before 10 till about 12 were not only at full Liberty to go off, but many of them were driven by Force out of the Goal. Some of them return'd immediately, and others the next Morning. They persuaded the Rioters, at length to retire, since all that had a mind to it had sufficient Time to escape. The Soldiers all went away, but some of them being in Liquor, and vaunting in their Exploit, return'd again, and delay'd till the City Militia came up, headed by their Officers, who acted with great Firmness. The Goal was secured by a proper Guard, and Quiet was soon restored. Some petty Offenders were broke; and of 54 Prisoners 12 only were missing, 6 of whom return'd before Noon, and but 4 have made use of the Opportunity to get off. An Instance this of the too great Disinclination of Creditors, and a Proof that a reasonable Agreement might be preferable to a Confinement, which by utterly ruining the unhappy Debtor, seldom answers the Expectation of a grasping or merciless Creditor.

On Thursday the 5th Inst. three Soldiers inlisting on the Ferrymen going over thro' the Ice with them, at New Brunswick, in breaking the Ice the Skiff got fast, and endeavouring to get loose, one of them fell thro', and was directly carried under the Ice, and lost. The other got ashore with some Difficulty.

January 26. We have received no particular Account since our last of the Riot mentioned in our Gazette last Monday, to have happened at the New Goal.—There is an Account published, said to be at the Request of some of the Prisoners, but it is too full of Inconsistencies to be introduced into this Paper. Upon the Whole, it appears that Major Rogers had frequent Interviews with a Number of those Soldiers, with whom, no doubt, he had laid his Plan.—That the better to execute it, he had singled a Set of about 15 or 20, who were to do the Job at a certain Hour, keeping in Reserve at a Distance upwards of an Hundred others to second the Riot; but, kept in Ignorance of the Time of the Major's Release, that a general Alarm of the Town might prevent a Pursuit. This had its Effect;—For, in Half an Hour's Time, Rogers, was at the Front Door, and by Report, gave One, Two, or Three Indian Yells, and afterwards march'd off with himself.—At this very Instant, Notice was given to the Reserve, by those who actually released the Major, that they should assist; when they directly furiously bolted in, beat and abused the Prisoners, opened almost every Door in the Goal in order to find Rogers, and forced every Prisoner out of it at the Point of their Bayonets;—The greatest Part of whom returned the next Morning;—But the Major, (agreeable to Logick) major'd us all; for, during the Uproar, he was pushing off with a pick'd-up Horse—and, Indian like, went the Lord knows where. TWO HUNDRED Pounds, however, is offered for apprehending him.—To finish the Account of this Affray, we should be glad to know, who would be so desirous of having their Heads broke, and Shoulders confoundedly bruised, by a Stroke directly levell'd at them; and afterwards have it said, no personal Hurt was designed them;—(A Stroke in Rhetoric, this is crooked, that we are apt to believe most of our Readers rather chuse to read of, than to experience). With Regard to Mr. Rogers saying, Gentlemen you will certainly ruin me, is altogether good; for as he had Money about him,—so put the better Face on the Matter, it was an Indian Policy to cry out dread of Ruin. And, touching his Expressions of being undone;—take a Bear and chain him,—let one of the Rioters, or any other Person break it, and, if the Beast could speak, (Fable like) he would bellow out,—That Fellow has undone me:—And that was all Rogers wanted, viz. To be undone.——

Thursday last Messrs. Joseph and Richardson Cornell, of this City, Shop keepers, absconded, having first taken up Goods, from different Merchants of this Place, to the Amount of £. 7000, and converted the greatest part of them into ready Cash: They went to Cow Neck on Long-Island, and there shut themselves up in a Room, in the House of Mr. Henry Sands, of that Place, and as some of the Creditors were endeavouring to get in upon them, last Friday Morning, they fired two Shot, the last of which killed Mr. Timothy Mc Carthy of this Place, on the Spot; and the same Day they escaped; and 'twas supposed were conveyed on board a Schooner in the Sound. The Coroner's Inquest being summoned, brought in their Verdict, (it is said Wilful Murder.) Mr. Mc. Carthy's Body was brought to Town Saturday Night, and decently interred Yesterday Evening.

Three-and-Twenty Sail of Trading Vessels have quitted this Port since our last, Nine on one Day, and Fourteen on another.

Also Gardener's Almanack. [Price 1 l.]

THE Subscriber, Mary Forster, Widow of Thomas Forster, late of Annapolis, deceased, requests all Persons indebted to the Estate of the Deceased, to make Payment to her Husband, that she may be able to discharge all just Claims against the said Estate.

MARY FORSTER, Administratrix.

Maryland, Patuxent River, George-Town, Dec. 10, 1763.

AS I am fully determined on going Home in the Spring 1765, if about then, in order to make a Settlement with my Employers, Messrs. John Glassford and Company, Merchants in GLASGOW, which I cannot accomplish without making Settlements with my Customers; I take this Method of informing them, That from the Date I have given up the Management of the Store to Mr. Robert Ferguson, who is well known to most of them; that I entirely have it in my Power to attend properly to the Settling all my former Transactions, and which I hope I shall not be disappointed to get done against the Spring 1765, having no all my Accounts ready for that Purpose, and flatter myself, that none concerned will delay on their Part, for however much I am inclined to be indulgent to those who really have it not in their Power to make Payment then, yet I am under the Necessity of requiring, that every Person who has open Accounts with me, shall make a Settlement of such Accounts, and their doing it soon will prevent them from being put to Expences, as well as Trouble to me. The Store at George-Town, on Patuxent River, now under the Management of Mr. Robert Ferguson, will be supplied with Goods, &c. as usual, and I have not the least doubt of its giving Satisfaction to all who are Kind enough to favour him with their Custom, as well to any old Customers, as to others who may incline to open a Correspondence with him. My Intention is to return to George-Town as early in the Spring 1766, as I can settle the Business on which I am going Home. All just Claims against me, either on Account of the Store, or property in my own Account, shall be settled before I depart this Province.
